Compiled & Arranged by Families
in Alphabetical Order
by Marilyn Allred

Feb. 2000

I have spent three years in reading and compiling the Vital Statistics of the Town of Warwick, Franklin County, Massachusetts, from 1739-1900, into families, in alphabetical order. This has been a labor of love, and began with my desire to search out my own ancestors who lived in Warwick, Ma., namely:

Lt. Elisha Rich & Mary Davis, (4th ggparkers), Jacob Rich & Mary Kendall, (3rd ggparkers), David Rich & Elizabeth Bass, (2nd ggparkers) and David's first wife, Lucretia Mayo and family; also Elizabeth Bass' Father, Obadiah Bass, Jr. (3ggfather) & his 2nd wife, Delia Goodwin, & their family, and Elizabeth's son, George L. Chesebro, by her first husband, George Chesebrough of Stonington, CT.

In doing this research, I have felt very close to the inhabitants who lived there, including those who served and died in the Revolutionary War, War of 1812, & Civil War. I have come to love them and also the town, though reading the History of Warwick, Ma., entitled "Biography of a Town" 1763-1963, written by Charles A. Morse, and published by Dresser, Chapman & Grimes, Inc., Cambridge, Massachusetts, 1963.

I am grateful to Charles A. Morse, and those who assisted him in compiling and writing this book, which I highly recommend to everyone who had relatives or ancestors who lived in Warwick, Ma.

During the course of extracting this record, I have prayed for guidance in reading the handwritten records recorded by the various Town Clerks, and compiling them into family groups. I hope that this record will be easy to read and helpful to all of you who are searching out your ancestors who lived in Warwick, Ma.

Because I had difficulty, at times, in reading the records, errors may have occurred. Please compare them with your own family records. If you find that there are additions or corrections to this record, please send them to:
